NUMBER 37

CRECELIOUS BILL.

Governor Signs Bill, Which Renders the Sale or Purchase of Fodder Wheat, Tobacco and Other Products.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. That section 3 of an act entitled an act permitting persons to combine or pool their crops of wheat, tobacco and other products and sell same as a whole and making contracts in pursuance thereof, approved March 1, 1906, being chapter 117 of the acts of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky for year 1906, be and the same is hereby amended and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

Such persons so entering into such an agreement or contract as is set out in the foregoing sections are hereby permitted to select an agent or agents through or by or with whom said parties so entering into such agreement may classify, grade, store, hold, sell, or dispose of said crop, or any of them, and said agent or agents shall have the right to take, receive, hold, store, classify, grade, sell, or dispose of said crop so placed in said agreement, for the purpose of accomplishing the object of such combination or agreement between such principals, and contracts and agreements entered into by such agent or agents for the purpose of classifying, grading, storing, holding, selling or disposing of said crop, as herein defined, or pooled, either in parcel or as a whole, are hereby permitted, and shall not, because of any such combination or purpose of such original agreement of such principals so entering into said combination, or of such agent or agents, be declared illegal or invalid. All contracts heretofore made by any person or persons for the purpose set out in the foregoing sections are hereby declared void, if otherwise legally binding on the parties. To prevent any breach or violation of any contract made for the purpose set out in the foregoing sections a restraining order and writ of injunction may be issued by proper officers, as prescribed in the civil code of practice.

For any breach or violation of any contract entered into for the purposes set out in the foregoing sections, the injured party may recover the damages sustained by him by reason of such violation of such contract of the person violating the same, and also of any person who shall induce or persuade another to violate such contract, which damages shall include the reasonable expense and attorneys fees incurred by the injured party in prosecuting an action to recover such damages, or to prevent a violation of such contract, if the party complaining shall succeed in doing so, which may be recovered in the same action or original proceeding. Said agent when so selected as herein provided shall have the sole right to sell said crop so pooled or combined, and it shall be unlawful for any owner of such crop to sell or dispose of same and for any person knowingly to purchase the same without the written consent of such agent and upon conviction thereof he or they shall be fined in any sum or amount not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars for each offense to be fixed by the jury in their discretion.

Section 2. Whereas, many crops of tobacco and other products have been combined and pooled in this State under contract and agreement entered into for the purpose set out in the above section, an emergency is now declared to exist which requires that this act should and shall take effect from and after its passage and approval by the Governor.

REWARDS OFFERED FOR "NIGHT RIDERS"

Governor Willson Includes Advance Information of Raids in $500 Offer.

Rewards of $500 for information in advance of any intended violence by "night riders" were offered by Governor Willson.

He also offers a reward of $500 for the apprehension and conviction of any two or more persons who have banded together for the purpose of intimidating, alarming, disturbing or injuring any person, or destroying tobacco barns, warehouses, or tobacco plants; scraping, salting or tramping beds; burning residences of tobacco, corn or other crops; poisoning cattle; writing and posting warning notes or sending intimidating letters.

He specifies particularly that those rewards will be paid for the arrest of the persons poisoning the cattle of R. M. Squires, of Fayette county, and those who burned the barns of George C. Grady and Mrs. Elizabeth Pepper, and those persons who fired at the residence of James Glassin, of Woodford county.

Governor Willson calls upon every citizen to "defend his freedom, his liberty and his property against the night riders by obeying the first law of nature, the highest duty of citizenship."

Wanted--50 Men and Women.

W. S. Lloyd, the enterprising druggist, is advertising today for fifty men and women to take advantage of the special half price offer he is making on Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, and get a fifty cent package at half price, 25 cents.

So positive is he of the remarkable power of this specific to cure these diseases, as well as sick headache and liver troubles, that he agrees to refund the money to any customer whom this medicine does not quickly relieve and cure.

With Dr. Howard's specific at hand, you can eat what you want and have no fear of ill consequences. It strengthens the stomach, gives perfect digestion, regulates the bowels, creates an appetite and makes life worth the living.

This is an unusual opportunity to obtain 60 doses of the best medicine ever made for half its regular price, with the personal guarantee of a well known business man to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction.

The right will triumph.

REPUBLICANS

REQUEST PARDON OF POWERS.

Legislators Call on the Governor, Who Fails to Answer.

Nearly all of the Republican members of the House and Senate marched in a body to the office of the Governor and plead for the pardon of Caleb Powers. They all favored Powers being set free. The Republicans of the Eleventh district want him to run for Congress, and that he cannot very well run when in jail. Governor Willson did not express himself in any way.

Bourbon Turkeys.

Mrs. Elora Sonnemaker, Glasgow, Ill., says: "My neighbors have all lost their turkeys. I give them your Bourbon Turkey Cure twice a week and have not lost a one." Sold and guaranteed by W. S. Lloyd, druggist.

Finest Train in the World.

The finest train in the world is the Kaiser's. It cost $1,000,000 and took three years to build it. In the twelve sumptuous saloons are two nursery coaches, a gymnasium, a music room and a drawing room furnished with oil paintings and statuary. The treasure room, with it two safes, is burglar-proof.

Do not resort to force if you wish to persuade a man to think as you do.

Hives, eczema, itch or salt rheum sets you crazy. Can't bear the touch of your clothing. Doan's Ointment cures the most obstinate cases. Why suffer? All druggists sell it.

False Deputy U. S. Marshal is Sentenced.

Earl Heiser, who, playing the part of a United States Deputy Marshal from Cleveland, caused the arrest of a number of railway employees at Gallion and Crestline at Lima, O., was sentenced to six years in the penitentiary by Judge Quail. After making his "arrests" and handcuffing his prisoners, Heiser would deliberately rob them.

Will Not Run.

John W. Yerkes, of Washington, D. C., emphatically denies that he is or will be a candidate for re-election as Republican National Committeeman.

GENERAL FEELING

OPTIMISTIC

Bankers Sanguine Business Will be Refreshed by Bill's Passage.

There was a general feeling of optimism in business and financial circles as the result of the passage by the Legislature of the bill which makes trust estate taxable at the home of the beneficiary only.

Bankers are sanguine that money will flow more freely, and all business be refreshed. Trust estates now here will not be withdrawn, and other will be attracted.

Within the last few weeks, a decided improvement in business has been manifested. A leading banker said that there was really money for all moderate purposes, and reserve funds show increases. There is ample evidence of restored confidence. Financial institutions have rarely been put to such a test, and those which weathered the storm, enjoy a fullness of confidence that may not have been theirs before.—Lexington Herald.

Surrender?

"I shall raise no tobacco this year, but my farm is for sale. I am ready to leave Kentucky, never to return."

This statement of a tobacco planter in Woodford county. It is hardly a good advertisement of real estate, yet it is an advertisement of land for sale in one of the richest counties in the Bluegrass region.

The "Blagrass" has been the inspiration of the poet, the painter and the orator. The consolations and compensations of life within its boundaries have been the theme of writers of romance and of travelers. The boast of the Kentuckian has been that the Shenandoah was but a remnant left over when the Creator made "God's Country" and set down on the other side of the mountains as a sample of the promised land.—Courier-Journal.

Sent to Pen for Forgery.

Walter R. Day, who served as State Treasurer during the Taylor reign at Frankfort, was found guilty of obtaining money under false pretenses at Hazard and was sentenced to the penitentiary for one year.

Former President Grover Cleveland on Wednesday celebrated his seventy-first birthday at Lakewood, N. J.

SHAKE WELL.

Advice of Nited Authority Also Gives a Simple Home Prescription.

Now is the time when the doctors get busy, and the patent medicine manufacturers reap the harvest, unless great care is taken to dress warmly and keep the feet dry. This is the advice of an old eminent authority, who says that Rheumatism and Kidney trouble weather is here, and also tells what to do in case of an attack.

Get from any good prescription pharmacy one-half ounce Phil Extract Blandell, one ounce Compound Kargon, three ounces Compound Syrup Sassa-parilla. Mix by shaking in a bottle and take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime.

Just try this simple, home made mixture at the first sign of Rheumatism, or if your back aches, or you feel that the kidneys are not acting just right. This is said to be a splendid kidney regulator, and almost certain remedy for all forms of Rheumatism, which is caused by uric acid in the blood, which the kidneys fail to filter out. Any one can easily prepare this at home and at small cost.

Druggists in this town and vicinity, when shown the prescription, stated that they can either supply these ingredients, or, if our readers prefer, they will compound the mixture for them.

Some Kentuckians have some faults.

UNCLE SAM

APPEALED TO.

Grover Calls on District Attorney.

The Federal Government may be called upon to step in and stop the right thing. Robert Stanton, of Brooksville, whose tobacco was recently destroyed, visited the Government Building at Covington, Ky., March 17, and held a consultation with the District Attorney. He claims protection has been denied by the State and county officials, and he will seek Federal redress. Under the law every handler of tobacco must notify the Government of shipments.

Keeps Them Safe.

A. Frank Wyatt, Frohman, Ky., says: "I never raised less than four hundred hogs. My neighbors' hogs have died all around me. I have been raising a new one in Bourbon Hog Cholesterol and it has kept them safe from disease."

Night riders burned the home of Henry Ellis, nine miles from Shelbyville. Mr. Ellis was called out of the home and made a prisoner while the torch was applied. He was preparing to raise a crop of tobacco.

MANHATTAN AND ECLIPSE MAKES

The March shipment of these goods is now ready for selling. The patterns are beautiful, the combinations, the weave and cloths are exclusive, as these brands design their own patterns, weave the cloth, make the buttons, originate the styles, and operate their own laundry, and even make the boxes they are shipped in. The new style fold COLLAR, with very small opening, is best for the coming season.

Our BELTS are of the finest makes. We are showing a new style with a detachable initial that will be popular this season. Call

Custom throughout the land seems to have set this day apart for mankind to come forth in his finest raiment to do his part on the stage of time. Already hundreds of discriminating buyers, who seek stores with a history and knowledge of their business, have bought their clothes or had them laid aside. Easter Shoes.

The J. & M. low shoes in tans, gun metals, wax calf, patent leather and victrol have strong points that no other shoes contain. First of all, J. & M. low shoes are made on low lasts at a great expense. The fit of the ankles is the proof that J. & M. shoes are hand-lasted at an extra expense of 20c on the pair. Their shape-holding qualities prove this. J. & M. buy the best selected skins, examine them and then cut one pair of uppers from the best part of that hide, as there is only one good pair of uppers to the hide. This is proven by the fact that both shoes of a pair of J. & M.'s is good, not one flanky and the other perfect. The balance of this hide is then sold to the makers of cheaper grades. There are other reasons, too, why J. & M.'s are better, but life is short and space here is valuable. Accept the truth—they are best. The complete line is here. We sell them for $5—they are worth more. Call at

HE BLAMED THE GOVERNMENT.

Unobliging Man Saw No Reason for Putting Himself Out.

"Sir," remarked the post office clerk who was off duty, as he watched a friend affix two stamps to the corner of an envelope, "why don't you put those stamps on horizontally instead of vertically? Don't you know you would save a lot of work for us stampers if you put your stamps beside each other instead of under each other? We always have to make two strokes when cancelling vertically pasted stamps by hand, and they don't work either through the stamping machine well."

"Is that so?" queried his friend, as he took another envelope and proceeded to affix two stamps to it in a vertical position. "Then, by the great horns upon, why doesn't the government sell its stamps in horizontal lines? Look at these. Here I bought 20 cents worth of two-cent stamps, and they come to me in vertical lines. If I buy five two I get them attached one to the bottom of the other. Do you think I'm going to the trouble of tearing each stamp off just to please a government clerk by pasting them side by side? Guess again."

ANCIENT AND MODERN FICTION.

Really Little Difference in the Methods of Writers.

The historian Freeman once said: "I never let a man die at the end of a chapter." The modern serial, or continued story, exemplifies a like theory of pausing at the very brink of an absorbing event. We consider a year of serial one of considerable length; yet in France, in 1610, the first two parts of the Astree, one of the most celebrated Gallic novels, were published four or five years before the third part, and several more in advance of the fourth and fifth parts. About the same time Bonnie's Deceit, by Scudery, unobscured as the author of the first romance of any note written by a woman. She composed and published by installments novels of a length unknown to the readers of today. Every story was originally issued in batches of small octavos, sometimes running to a score or so. She has been described as "the most pitiless writer of fiction that the world has ever known."

The same Seventeenth Century, says Harpur's Weekly, illustrates, again, the willingness of French writers to abridge their time. The poet Malherbe wished to console a friend on the death of his wife. By the time the poem was finished, the gentleman had been consoled, remarried, and was himself dead!

Oriental Toy Fish.

William H. Heimbach of Allestown, Pa., an expert breeder of fancy fishes, has recently sold a lot of Japanese fringetails, some Chinese fantails for $10 each. Several of the fringetails, with bodies less than three inches long, have tails four inches long. The parent stock was imported from the Orient, but Mr. Heimbach has succeeded in raising about 500 of the fish in an elaborate hatchery he built adjoining his home. The fish, in addition to being expensive, requires in its culture and care, the fish must be kept and bred in still water, which is supplied with oxygen by means of old plants procured chiefly from China. The broodstock of these fish, of which single specimens are worth from $5 to $10, is said to be the acme of piscatorial culture. A well stocked five gallon aquarium is worth about $150.

Their Favorite Motions.

Many well-known men have favorite motions which they endeavor to live up to, and, curiously enough, some of them are particularly applicable to their professions. "Speech is silver, silence is golden," is the maxim which Sir George Lewis, the famous lawyer, always bears in mind. "Tell the truth and shame the devil!" is Mr. Litchfield's very appropriate motto; while Sir John Fisher adopts the significant words: "The frontier of England are the equator of the enemy." John Burns is very fond of the saying: "The world is my country, and to do good is my religion;" while the Irish premier gives the text of St. Paul as his motto: "All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient."

A True Friend.

A true friend will tell you his faults, is a saying we often hear, but a true friend, if he is wise in the knowledge of human nature, will tell his virtues. The fact is that in this busy world of ours, with its keen struggle and sharp cuts, we are very apt to get our faults by those who are not friends, and to be brought face to face with our mistakes and failures as honest people who have no love and no pride for another should feel that he holds something which is that other's due, and has to pay it. The word of hearty commendation will be "some thing to live up to" through many a trying hour. —The Parish Visitor.

Famous Beauty a Woodcarver.

Lady Colebrooke, famous alike for her beauty and her accomplishments as a political hostess, possesses a wonderfully complete carpenter and wood carving shop at Arlington, Lanarkshire. Here she has not only turned out some clever pieces of work but has also taught some of the village girls on her husband's estate how to fashion wood with hammer and chisel. Lady Colebrooke is a clever sculptor; too.

FAILED TO IMPRESS "SQUIRE."

Country Justice Had His Opinion of Supreme Court Decision.

Speaking of the perversity of country "Squires," State Senator John S. Fisher, chairman of the Pennsylvania Capital Investment Commission, told this story recently: "We have one old codger out in Indiana county who fears neither law nor equity. Not long ago Dick Wilson had a case before the 'Squire' and knowing his man, he went to the office fortified with a dozen or more supreme court decisions. 'Wilson argued his case, cited several opinions, and finally remarked: 'Squire, I have here some decisions by the supreme court of Pennsylvania, which I shall read.' 'Wilson finished one decision when the justice interrupted, saying: 'Mr. Wilson, the reason you've read enough. Those supreme court decisions are all right so far they go, but if the supreme court had not already reversed itself I have no doubt that it will do so in the near future. Judgment is, therefore, given against your client.'"

WOULD ESCAPE THE MENDING.

One of the Two Reasons Why Mrs. Billotte Would Like to Be Rich.

"Hardly a day of my life, Sundays included, that I don't have to mend something," said the gentle Mrs. Billotte, not complacently, but still it must be confessed a little wearily, as she taught us to mend a little rip in something before doing it up in the bundle for the laundry. And Mrs. Billotte wouldn't want to be very rich, she has no money, but if she would like to be rich enough so that she wouldn't have to worry over anything, and so that she wouldn't have to be always mending, mending, why, it takes half her mind now keeping things in repair, and she would like to be able to throw things away to be replaced, not wear out her fingers and waste her time mending them, but simply buy new.

Mrs. Billotte thinks that even if she had wealth she would still continue to mend things till the suns for there are, he observes, at least two ways in which she seems to be somewhat strongly set, she hates to throw away anything and she likes to keep everything in order. But while she is willing to concede the force of this argument yet Mrs. Billotte thinks, as she discovers something else that she has to mend before she sends it to the wash, that if they were rich she could get over the habit of mending.

Microscopic Sensations.

The joys and sorrows of life to a handful of bacteria are said to be as real as the pains and pleasures of an elephant, for example. Why do the bacteria choose certain conditions and reject others? This selection of the favorable condition and rejection of the unfavorable is perhaps the fundamental point, although other elements of their existence point to the fact that they have sensations. It often is maintained that this selection is personal or conscious choice. Professor Jones is convinced that if the amoeba were a large animal, so as to come within the everyday experience of human beings, its behavior at such times would forth the attribution to it of states of pleasure and pain, of hunger, desire, and the like. If words have meaning if it covers, he argues, to say that the bacteria enjoy life. They struggle for existence. The struggle implies all the victories and all the defeats attendant upon the struggle for existence among the highest organisms. The bacteria of an organic disease should be as capable of occasional as a monkey.

Protecting Stage Children.

The society for the Protection of Children in New York for the convenience of theatrical managers, makes out the request when children are to be put upon the stage, and this request is sent to the mayor. He then gives the order that enables the child to take part in the performance. It goes without saying that the society does not make out the order unless the child is not drawn from the stage because of his health. This was done, and that is, no doubt, why he is now the master that he is.

Living with People.

Life's best school is living with people. It is the school of self-control. Some one says: "It is better to live with others even at the cost of considerable jarring and friction than to live in unstarved quietude. It is not ideally the easy way. It means oftentimes hurt, wrongs, injustices, many a wounding, many a heartache, many a pain. It requires self-forgetfulness, self-restraint, the giving up of one's rights many times, the overlooking of unkindness and thoughtlessness the quiet enduring of things that it would seem no one should be required to endure from another. But it is best—Foreward."

The Usual Bluff.

"Pa, there's a reporter at the front door who wants to put your picture in the paper."

"Tell him I would not stand for any such nonsense, but be sure to give him that picture on the parlor mantle. It's the one I ever had." —Detroit Free Press.

WHY SO WEAK?

Kidney Troubles May be Sapping Your Life Away—Mt. Sterling People Have Learned This Fact.

When a healthy man or woman begins to run down without apparent cause, becomes weak, languid, depressed, suffers backache, headache, dizzy spells and urinary disorders, look to the kidneys for the cause of it all. Keep the kidneys well and they will keep you well. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and keep them well. Here is Mt. Sterling testimony to prove it.

Samuel T. Green, of High street, Mt. Sterling, Ky., says:

"Doan's Kidney Pills were worth their weight in gold to me. That is my opinion and the following are my reasons: For a good many years I suffered with kidney trouble, brought on, I believe, by heavy lifting. The dull aching across the small of my back and the sharp pains if I stooped or straightened, made life anything but pleasant to me. There was also a very annoying and distressing urinary difficulty, particularly observable at night. I took all kinds of medicine, supposed to be good for kidney trouble, and doctored a great deal, but without obtaining any noticeable benefit until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills. The change the first box made in my condition was surprising, and I continued the treatment by taking another, when all symptoms of disordered kidneys disappeared and I felt myself cured."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

THEY "PASSED THE BUTTER."

Brakeman's Happy Inspiration Met with Deserved Success.

"When I was connected with a certain western railway," says a prominent official of an eastern line, "we had in our employ a brakeman who, for special service rendered to the road, was granted a month's vacation."

"He decided to spend his time in a trip over the Rockies. We furnished him with passes."

"He went to Denver, and there met a number of his friends at work on one of the Colorado roads. They gave him a good time, and when he went away made him a present of a mountain goat."

"Evidently our brakeman was at a loss to get the animal home with him, as the express charges were very heavy at that time. Finally, however, hitting upon a happy expedient, he made out a shipping tag and tied it to the horns of the goat. Then he presented the beast to the office of the stock car line."

"Well, that tag created no end of amusement, but it served to accomplish the end of the brakeman. It was inscribed as follows:

"Please Pass the Butter. Thomas J. Meachin, Brakeman, S. S. & T. Ry."—Harper's Weekly.

WARNINGS FOR FLAT HUNTERS.

Tenants of Building Get Even with Mersey Agent.

There is an apartment house in The Bronx whose agent's idea of thrift and economy is "spend not a penny to-day that can be saved until to-morrow." He buys but one load of coal at a time for this apartment house, and never orders a second load until the first is all gone. Then it takes the coal dealer 12 to 24 hours to deliver. Meanwhile the tenants burn gas and shiver. The agent also instructs the janitor to be extremely saving in the use of coal in the furnace and in the boiler. The result is that some days the so-called hot water is only warm and on other days it is entirely cold.

The tenants have grown tired of this routine and several of them have moved out since the winter set in. Others are posting notices in the hall for the benefit of flat hunters. Two samples are as follows:

"No; we don't furnish hot and cold water. We furnish two kinds of cold water."

"Six days in the week shafts that have steam heat, and on the seventh day they shaft burn gas or freeze, as pleases them most."—New York Press.

Hymn Singing Out of Style.

"The other morning," remarked the old-fashioned man, "I had to put the question to myself as to whether people ever sang hymns any more in New York outside of church. It came about through my hearing a woman singing 'Lead, Kindly Light,' the words and melody of which came floating down to my room through an airshaft. When I heard it I was reminded of the fact that in the five years I've lived here I never heard any one singing a hymn before in my apartment house, or anywhere else, so far as that goes, save in church or on the street corner by the Salvation Army. And yet, although I never go to vaudeville performances, I am kept thoroughly informed, through the medium of that same airshaft, as to what is the latest thing in popular Old-fashioned hymn-singing, like old-fashioned

DISCUSSES PLANS

OF UNIVERSITY.

Now Has Income of More Than $100,000 Annually.

In a speech at Lexington President Patterson, of the State University of Kentucky, said that the Anglo-Saxon would eventually rule the world. That the purest Anglo-Saxon blood of America was found in Kentucky and Tennessee. While congratulating the State on the bill making Kentucky State College a University, he emphasized the fact that the University was developed as it should be, and more money would be required than ever. In addition to the direct appropriation of $200,000 the University will receive about $20,000 more from the State this year than before, making the annual income more than $100,000.

Illinois State University receives $1,500,000, Harvard, $1,600,000 and Cornell, which is like the State University of Kentucky, a land grant school, has an annual income of $1,900,000. President Patterson declared, however, that if the State and the people of Kentucky would do their duty he hoped to see the State University of Kentucky take the rank once held by old Transylvania College, which was in its day the Harvard of the West.

Sale or Purchase of Pooled Tobacco Illegal.

Tobacco growers were well pleased when it was announced that Governor Wilson had on Friday signed the Crecelius Tobacco Bill, which provides severe penalties for selling pooled tobacco or for "knowingly buying pooled tobacco."

In signing it the Governor said: "It may be that this measure, which is new and experimental, will not bear the fruit which its supporters promise and hope. It was adopted by an overwhelming majority. Very little remonstrance has been made to me. I leave the law questions, which seem likely to be raised under it, to the courts and in the hope that this bill may be useful, both directly and in some ways not directly withing its scope, I approve this bill."

$100.00 paid by Dr. Shoop for any recent case of Grippe or acute Cold that a 25 cent box of Prev. aties will not break. How is this for an offer? Put Irish Flag Above the Stars and Stripes.

At Galveston, Tex., when Capt. Moore, of the British steamship Howthhead, of Belfast, Ireland, dressed ship in honor of St. Patrick, he put the green emblem above the Stars and Stripes. Not until he received a formal demand from the Collector of Customs accompanied by a threat to call the gunboat into service unless the order of the flags was reversed did the Irish skipper yield.

B.t Off His Nose.

At Frankfurt, Adolph Kratzel, a butcher, bit his own nose almost off. He has false teeth and is subject to fits. He had a fit. He shook his false teeth out of his mouth and they fell to the pavement just as he fell. Kratzel fell forward on his face, and his nose landed between the jaws of his false teeth, which were open on the pavement. His weight closed the teeth together and his nose was bitten almost off.

Predicts Bryan's Election.

Congressman Ollie James, in a speech in Congress, referred to Mr. Bryan as follows:

"He has never prostituted his sentiments for money," he said, "He has never sold the love of the American people for corporate gold."

The people of the country, he said, would "in just time do proper and good credit to the man who draws the naked sword in the defense of their rights. He believes that these people are going to elect for President that grand, that splendid, that matchless Democrat, William J. Bryan."

Dedication of Lincoln Farm.

The Governor's interest in the dedication of the Lincoln farm next February should be Kentucky's interest. From all corners of the Nation will come to the farm in Larue county, as to a shrine, thousands of people. It will be an event that must appeal to all Americans. In the case of Kentuckians it should appeal not only to sentiment, but to pride. And so, when next year the President and other distinguished Americans come to consecrate the newly-created and beautiful farm to the perpetuation of Lincoln's memory, Kentucky should not have failed to do its part.

James Spalding, a wealthy young farmer of Boyle county, was sent to the asylum on his own request, claiming that he was in the mood to kill his wife and children and would do so unless imprisoned. He admitted that he had burned stock barns to satisfy his mania.

A great English preacher once said: "Total abstinence saves more money than all the savings banks of Great Britain; it prevents more crime than all the police of this metropolis; it prolongs more lives than all the doctors of England."

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism. With a remedy that will stratify the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn heavy groans back to sleep again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pains of this terrible disease. In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, I can cure all curable cases of this terrible and painful disease. Those and like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes, freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual cause to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

For Nervous, Over-worked and "Run Down" Women

Women in an exhausted, nervous state, due to over-work, continuous social functions or a general "run down" condition of health, often wonder why tonics and emulsions fail to benefit them. The reason is plain. Tonics and emulsions are good in their place, but they cannot build up the body until the nerves have been toned and quieted.

There's only one remedy that can restore health to women in this exhausted, nervous condition, because it acts directly upon the nerves.

Rexall

Americanitis Elixir

is the only remedy of its kind in existence. As its name implies, it's a specific for the peculiar exhausted nervous conditions resulting from the continuous rush and tension under which Americans live. This remedy fills an important gap in the line of medicines.

Rexall Americanitis supplies to the body just those elements which Nature cannot supply in sufficient quantities to meet the unnatural drain upon the nervous system.

Phosphorus in soluble form is the basis of this splendid nerve food. Thousands of women have been saved from nervous prostration by the prompt use of Rexall Americanitis. To all conditions of nervous derangement, exhaustion and debility it brings permanent relief.
